An attorney whose name is synonymous with medical malpractice and professional liability defense in Southern California, David O'Keefe has demonstrated intelligence, civility and exemplary trial skills during the four decades he has practiced law.

Focus Areas

He is widely recognized for his victories in numerous complex trials alleging medical, psychiatric and emotional injuries caused by malpractice. Cases involving birth injuries, head trauma, emergency medicine, plastic surgery and anesthesiology are among his areas of expertise.

"Every case has its weak points and we work to find them," is how David explains his outstanding record of trial achievement. Persuasion, ethical considerations, risk reduction and clear communication are his guiding tenets when defending clients in malpractice and professional liability lawsuits.

David has served as lead counsel in more than 250 jury trials and arbitrations and is a member of numerous leading professional organizations including the American Board of Trial Advocates, the American College of Trial Lawyers as well as the International Academy of Trial Lawyers. These organizations which are by invitation only are comprised only of the most experienced trial attorneys in the country.
