2014 Outstanding Law Students

Selected by law schools as their outstanding students, these talented and dedicated award winners are among the best and brightest. They are honored for academic achievements and for the impact they have made beyond their classrooms. The men and women listed below have worked to further the advancement of women in society and promoted the concerns of women in the legal profession with tenacity and enthusiasm that inspired their fellow law students and their professors.

NAWL salutes these individuals who have begun working early in their careers to promote justice for women. We encourage them to continue making a difference as their careers blossom.
