

Thomas O'Neil
Shareholder

213.738.5862
toneil@bonnebridges.com

Through his decades of trial work involving medical malpractice and professional negligence, Thomas O'Neil excels at all aspects of the litigation, from discovery through presentation, trial argument and settlement negotiations.

Focus Areas

Dental malpractice, legal malpractice, personal injury, product liability and administrative law matters are all areas where Tom has significant experience.

Arbitration is a particular strength for Tom and he serves as an arbitrator in the Los Angeles County Superior Courts. Additionally, he has experience as a settlement officer in the Los Angeles County Superior Court Crash Settlement Conference Program.

Education

- Pepperdine University School of Law, J.D., 1982
- California State University, Northridge, cum laude, B.A., 1979

Courts Admitted

- United States District Court, Central District of California
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit
- All California State Courts

Practice Areas

- Medical Malpractice Defense
- Product Liability
- Professional Liability

Associations

- Los Angeles County Bar Association

Presentations & Publications

- "How are you going to get me out of this case?"
— Bonne Bridges News Bulletin, March, 2008