

William Johnson

Shareholder

213.738.5805

wjohnson@bonnebridges.com

Bill Johnson maintains an active practice in professional liability, employment law, premises liability and church-related litigation. As a litigator, he defends against professional malpractice actions, both medical malpractice and legal malpractice.

Bill has been with Bonne, Bridges, Mueller, O'Keefe & Nichols since 1998. Prior to completing law school, he worked at McDonnell Douglas, Long Beach, as a procurement coordinator.

Prior to coming to the firm, Bill worked at Greene, Broillet, Taylor, Wheeler & Panish, the preeminent plaintiff's law firm, where he worked on a wide variety of cases, including motor vehicle liability, burn and head trauma injuries, wrongful death, premises liability, insurance bad faith, civil rights, wrongful termination, and sexual discrimination.

Education

- Southwestern University School of Law, J.D., 1996
 - Member of Law Review
 - Graduated cum laude
- University of California, Davis, International Relations, 1988

Courts Admitted

- United States District Court, Central District of California
- All California State Courts

Practice Areas

- Elder Law & Long Term Care
- Employment
- Medical Malpractice Defense
- Professional Liability